Banned Books Week September 25-October 2

Banned Books Week (BBW) is an annual event celebrating the freedom to read and the importance of the First Amendment. Held during the last week of September, Banned Books Week highlights the benefits of free and open access to information while drawing attention to the harms of censorship by spotlighting actual or attempted banning of books across the United States.

Intellectual freedom—the freedom to access information and express ideas, even if the information and ideas might be considered unorthodox or unpopular—provides the foundation for Banned Books Week. BBW stresses the importance of ensuring the availability of unorthodox or unpopular viewpoints for all who wish to read and access them.

LinkWISCONSIN

LinkWISCONSIN is a state-wide initiative to promote the availability of broadband internet access. Taking the time to complete their survey will assist them as they plan for potential regional broadband services in Wisconsin. Learn more about it and complete the survey online at <http://www.link.wisconsin.gov/lwi/default.aspx?page=27>

WiFi

Remember Wireless Internet is available at the Hortonville Public Library. You may use your wireless laptop to access the internet any time during regular library hours. And best of all – it's free!

Track Your Reading History

Do you sometimes forget if you have read a certain book or finished all the books in a particular series? Infosoup offers a quick, easy way to track your reading history. If you sign up for this service, our catalog will begin to keep track of all the books you have checked out, and you will always have a list available to help you remember what you have read.

It's easy to sign up:

1. Log into your library account
2. Click on the "My Reading History" icon.
3. Click on the "Turn On" Icon.

Fall Story Times

The weekly preschool story times are at 10:15 a.m. on Mondays and 10:00 a.m. on Fridays. Be sure to check the calendar of events on the library's web site for information on the book and craft for the day.

New Materials

Find out what's new at the library by going to the library's website and selecting new materials. This link will take you directly into infosoup (the online catalog) where you will be able to place holds on any of the items.

Perhaps no place in any community is so totally democratic as the town library. The only entrance requirement is interest. - Lady Bird Johnson

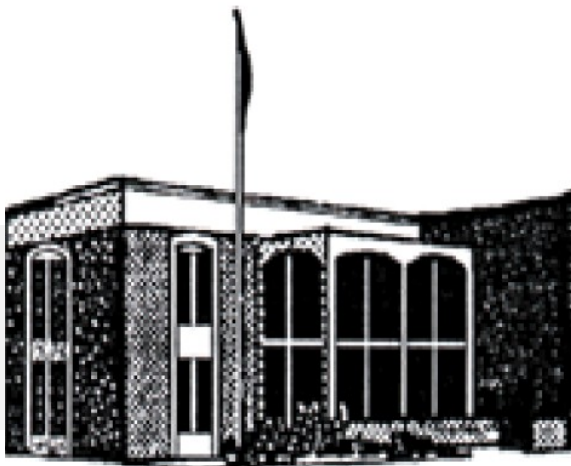

Flag Retirement

Just a reminder that if you are replacing your flag you can bring the old one to the library. Place it in the box in the lobby to be picked up by members of the American Legion for their flag retirement ceremonies.
